

A heatmap visualization showing the relationship between 20 datasets (columns) and 20 features (rows). The color scale ranges from dark blue (low) to dark red (high). The heatmap shows a complex pattern of relationships, with some features showing high values across many datasets (e.g., Feature 10, Feature 11) and others showing low values (e.g., Feature 14, Feature 15).

